Learning & Activation

StriveTogether has an intentional data driven approach and an active knowledge management strategy to support its network members. The Learning and Activation division manages curation, codification and creation of resources and tools that support peer to peer learning in the network and accelerate equitable outcomes. In 2019, the organization launched an enterprise-wide digital transformation strategy and launched a new partner portal that has engaged 100% of the network communities. The team also digitized its annual assessment process leading to data collection from close to 100% of the Network.

In addition to releasing several learning resources, a network led race equity planning team led delivery of new resources to support equitable outcomes. Theory of Action, managed by the team, measured progress across the network, leading to 13 Emerging, 39 Sustaining and 16 Proof Point communities.
