CRADLE-TO-CAREER OUTCOMES RESEARCH CONSULTANT

OVERVIEW

StriveTogether is a national movement with a clear purpose: helping every child succeed in school and in life from cradle to career, regardless of race, ethnicity, zip code or circumstance. In partnership with nearly 70 communities across the country, we provide coaching, resources and rigorous approaches to create opportunities and close gaps in education, housing and so much more. We use data to illuminate problems and solutions, tackle tough conversations and deliver impactful results for more than 12 million children.

PURPOSE AND REQUIREMENTS

The purpose of this project is to create an updated resource that outlines the research behind the 7 key milestones our network has identified as critical to the success of every child.

Specifically, the consultant will update StriveTogether Cradle to Career Outcomes Research Summary by:

- Summarizing the latest research on the importance of each of the key milestones and how they impact economic mobility. Sources should include published peer-reviewed research, as well as published reports from published peer-reviewed research and reports from organizations in the field
- Adding information on key indicators that can be used to measure each of the outcome areas based on research
- Summarizing research on factors known to impact each key milestone, including systems indicators
- Adding a research summary for the employment milestone
- Ensuring the resource adheres with our editorial guidelines
- Holding bi-weekly check in calls with StriveTogether team

SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE

- Experience in the education field and in-depth knowledge of education research
- Strong writing capabilities, including literature reviews
- Demonstrated commitment to racial and ethnic equity

PROJECT DELIVERABLES AND TIMELINE

- Project milestones:
  - 1. Initial annotated bibliography identifying key research relevant to the work submitted for review
